

This form is to be completed by UK registered charities or Community Interest Companies (who can provide evidence of their charitable purpose) who are applying for a grant from the Charles Littlewood Hill Trust.

For further information to support your application, please see the Trust's Grant Policy and How To Apply webpages on the Charles Littlewood Hill Trust's website. Please send the completed Application Form, along with the completed Grant Application Summary, latest financial statements and any additional supporting documentation, to the Charles Littlewood Hill Trust via email (charleshilltrust@outlook.com) or by post (PO Box 11466, Nottingham, NG9 9NJ).

Please note that the Charles Littlewood Hill Trust and the Lady Hind Trust are connected and administered in unison. As such, please only apply for a grant to one Trust.

DETAILS OF THE GRANT APPLICATION

Name of Charity/CIC

Provide Charity Number or other evidence of charitable purpose

Describe the project or activity for which the grant is requested. Please ensure you explain how the project or activity meets the Trust's Grant Policy (supplemental documentation to support the project/activity can also be provided):

Explain who will benefit from the project or activity. Ensure you include information that shows the benefit is sustainable:

Identify the likely costs of the project/activity and explain what other finance is sought or is available, so the Trustees understand if and when the project will go ahead. To help with this, please ensure this covers the overall cost of the project, the amount your organisation has already raised and what is left to raise compared with the amount that your organisation is asking for from the Charles Littlewood Hill Trust:

Explain if the project/activity will be managed or organised by paid staff and/or volunteers. Please quote the numbers of individuals involved:
